WARREN WILHELM
Fiscal Economist - Appointee
Executive Office of the President
Washington, D. C.
LOYALTY OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES
Buded January 26, 1953

The Bureau has recently received a communication from Mr. John F. Doherty, Director, Security and Investigation Division, Mutual Security Agency, Washington, D. C., concerning the captioned individual.

"On January 5, 1953, Cornelius J. Dwyer, an employee of this Agency, called at my office and advised that he attended Yale University from 1935 - 1939 and that during that period Andrew Landay, Apartment 22, 464 Riverside Drive, New York 27, New York, was also in attendance at Yale. Dwyer stated that Landay was a known Communist at Yale and was responsible for recruiting a number of individuals in the Communist Party. Landay apparently was suspended from the Communist Party about 1941, and apparently has been Anti-Communist since that date.

"Dwyer stated that he recently met Landay and the latter seemed quite concerned because of the fact that some of the people that he recruited into the Communist Party might still be active Communists. Dwyer stated that in discussing the Communists at Yale while they were in attendance, he made the remark to Landay that it was his feeling that most of them had probably dropped out of the Party. At this point Landay stated, 'What about the Wilhelm brothers?' Dwyer stated that Landay was referring to Warren Wilhelm, now employed in the Bureau of the Budget, and his brother Donald Wilhelm, whose present occupation and address are unknown to Dwyer.

"Mr. Dwyer was told that we intended to furnish the above information to you. He stated that he had no objection, and that he would be glad to discuss the matter further with one of your agents. He also stated that he was sure that Andrew Landay would be glad to further discuss the matter with a representative of your Bureau."

You are requested to locate and interview Mr. Cornelius J. Dwyer, mentioned in Mr. Doherty's letter.

Concerning Andrew Landay mentioned in Mr. Doherty's letter, your attention is directed to your file 121-36093 concerning Donald Malcolm Landay, ESA, LGE, who is reportedly a brother of Andrew Landay. It is noted in New Haven letter dated March 28, 1950, a copy of which was furnished you with Bulet dated 2-14-52 in the case concerning Donald Malcolm Landay, mentioned above, that Andrew Landay in 1949, was reportedly a seminary student at St. John's Seminary, Camarillo, California, preparing for the Catholic priesthood. It is requested that in your interview with Mr. Dwyer, you endeavor to ascertain Landay's present whereabouts and set out a lead to have him interviewed. It is suggested that you also furnish the office that will interview Andrew Landay with the information furnished by Doherty and the background information concerning Andrew Landay.

NOTE: Andrew Landay is the subject of Bufile 100-368364. The only information in this file indicates that Andrew Landay while a student at Yale University from 1939 to 1940 was active in the New Haven Youth Conference, an organization which was dominated by Communist Party members, that he also attended student meetings which were held at the headquarters of the New Haven Section of the Communist Party. Available information in 1950 indicated that Landay, although interested in Communism, was a religious young man of Jewish faith. The captioned individual was previously investigated by this Bureau and the results of the investigation were furnished to the Civil Service Commission on July 23, 1951, for consideration under EO 9835. The CSC advised on September 14, 1951, that the appointee had been adjudged "eligible on loyalty."

ReBulet January 16, 1953 and Bulet February 14, 1952, in the case entitled DONALD MALCOLM LANDY, ESA, LGE, a copy of which was received by the New York Office.

Enclosed herewith, for the information of the New York Office, is a copy of Bulet dated January 16, 1953.

Referenced Bulet dated February 14, 1952 states: "Bufiles reflect a letter from New Haven to the Director, dated March 28, 1950, entitled ANDREW HERBERT LANDAY, SECURITY MATTER - C, New Haven file 100-8614, cc-Los Angeles, wherein information is set out by confidential informant of known reliability, who advised that ANDREW LANDAY, at Yale University, 1939-40, was active in the New Haven Youth Conference and an associate of known Communist Party members. Records of the Yale University revealed that ANDREW LANDAY had a brother named DONALD MALCOLM LANDAY. A copy of the above letter is being forwarded to the field."

A review of the WFO file in this case fails to reflect that a copy of the above-mentioned letter concerning ANDREW HERBERT LANDAY was ever forwarded to the WFO. In the event the New York Office did not receive a copy of the above-mentioned letter concerning ANDREW HERBERT LANDAY, New York should request a copy of same from the Bureau.

Mr. CORNELIUS J. DWYER, Chief of the Petroleum Branch, Mutual Security Agency, residence 1603 Crittendon Street, N.W., Washington, D. C., advised that he attended Yale University from 1935 to 1939; while in his senior year at Yale, DWYER was the leader of the Labor Party, a debating group and a part of the Yale Political Union. He advised that ANDREW LANDAY was two years behind him at Yale University and that he knew at the time that LANDAY had had made speeches before the Freshman Forum, which definitely followed the Communist Party line, and further that LANDAY had never attempted to conceal his Communist sympathies while at Yale. He advised that LANDAY became a member of the Labor Party of the Yale Political Union and that in this organization he also made open Communist speeches. He advised that everyone at Yale assumed that LANDAY was a Communist. He stated further that there was an active cell of the Young Communist League at Yale University at the time and that LANDAY was active in the YCL.

DWYER related that he was not closely acquainted with LANDAY and that the only occasions of contact he had with him were in connection with meetings of the Labor Party of the Yale Political Union.

Mr. DWYER stated that on January 2, 1953, ANDREW LANDAY called him up and asked to have lunch with him. He stated that he was of the opinion at that time that LANDAY was a seminary student studying for the Catholic Priesthood. He advised that during the course of their luncheon he was told by LANDAY that he was now studying to be a librarian at Columbia University in New York City, and that he presently resides in Apartment 22, 464 Riverside Drive, New York 27, New York.

Mr. DWYER stated that LANDAY at the present is apparently as devout a Catholic as he was an ardent Communist during the late 1930's. During the luncheon, LANDAY expressed intense regret at the fact that he might have converted or influenced persons to join the Communist Party. Mr. DWYER was questioned quite closely on this point, inasmuch as Bulet of January 16, 1953 reported that DWYER had stated that LANDAY had said "recruited into the Communist Party." He advised that at no time did LANDAY use the word recruited, but rather intended to express himself as having influenced or converted others by his own activities. Mr. DWYER advised that he told LANDAY that he felt that probably all of the people who had joined the Communist Party at Yale had dropped out of the Party. At this point, LANDAY stated, "What about the WILHELM brothers?" DWYER advised that he replied that he had no idea they were Communists, and inasmuch as LANDAY apparently did not want to pursue the subject, they dropped it and changed to another topic.

Mr. DWYER advised that he feels that ANDREW LANDAY would be quite cooperative in an interview by Bureau Agents.

Continuing, DWYER related that WARREN WILHELM was a classmate of his at Yale and that they were both in the same graduating class. He stated he was not a close friend of WILHELM's and actually did not know too much about him. He advised that WILHELM was in Swight Hall, a Y.M.C.A. unit on the campus at Yale. He stated this group was made up mostly of religious students and also a few Christian Socialists, Pacifists and "pro-labor New Deal thinking students." He advised that the Dwight Hall section was definitely not known as a Communist thinking set.

DWYER advised that WILHELM appeared to be a very reliable type of individual, although he was "left wing." He stated that he meant by this that WILHELM was definitely pro-labor and an ardent New Dealer. He stated that he recalls that WILHELM was active with him in a fight against the Communists at Yale, relating that WILHELM pulled his Dwight Hall group out of the American Student Union, which was completely Communist dominated. He also advised that WILHELM, in his senior year, was a member of a group which was screened against Communism and which was selected to intervene with United Nations officials on behalf of the chamber maids and campus police over wages.

Mr. DWYER stated that he never questioned WILHELM's loyalty and that he considers him loyal to the United States. He advised further that he has had no contact with WILHELM in Washington except for one luncheon and one business meeting in 1950.

New York is requested to interview ANDREW LANDAY relative to the information contained in the enclosure to this letter and the information set forth in instant letter.
